In the Matter of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended, and in the matter of

C&J Energy Production Services-Canada Ltd. and Mobile Data Technologies Ltd. (the "Companies")

On July 27, 2016, the Companies were granted an Order (the "Initial Order") by the Alberta Court of Queen's Bench (the "Court") and obtained creditor protection under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA").

The Initial Order granted the Companies various relief, including but not limited to, imposing a stay of proceedings against the Companies and their assets, appointing Ernst and Young Inc. as Information Officer (the "Information Officer"), and providing the Companies an opportunity to prepare and file a plan of arrangement or compromise under the CCAA for the consideration of their creditors and other stakeholders. Under the Initial Order, the Companies are to continue to carry on business in a manner consistent with the commercially reasonable preservation of their business and assets.

A copy of the Initial Order can be found on the Information Officer's website at www.ey.com/ca/CJEnergy. Further materials, orders of the Court, creditor listings, Information Officer's reports and other information relating to the proceedings pursuant to Part IV of the CCAA will be posted to the Information Officer's website as well.

If you are unable to obtain a copy of the Initial Order or other documents filed on the Information Officer's website as they become available, please contact the Information Officer and a copy of the requested documents will be provided to you.
