AND APPROVING FORM AND MANNER OF NOTICE THEREOF

Upon the motion (the “Motion”)¹ of the Debtors for entry of a supplemental order under Bankruptcy Code sections 501, 502, 503, and 1111(a), Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c)(3), and Local Rule 2002-1(e) (i) establishing deadlines for Consumer Customer filings of Proofs of Claim against the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases and (ii) approving the form and manner of notice thereof; and the Court having reviewed the Motion; and the Court having determined that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and other parties in interest; and it appearing that proper and adequate notice of the Motion has been given and that no other or further notice is necessary; and upon the record herein; and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.
2. All objections to the entry of this Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

¹ Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion.

The Debtors shall include the designated Consumer Bar Date in the Consumer Bar Date Notice and shall file a separate Notice of Designation of Consumer Bar Date making the designated Consumer Bar Date a matter of record. The Debtors may agree, by written stipulation in advance of the Consumer Bar Date, to extend the Consumer Bar Date on behalf of any claimant, but shall not be required to do so.

4. If, on or after the date on which the Debtors serve the Consumer Bar Date Notice, the Debtors amend or supplement their Schedules (a) to reduce the undisputed, noncontingent, and liquidated amount of a claim, (b) to change the nature or characterization of a claim, or (c) to add a new claim to the Schedules, the affected claimant shall file a Proof of Claim or amend any previously filed Proof of Claim in respect of the amended scheduled claim in accordance with the procedures described herein so that it is filed, as provided below, with Donlin on or before the later of (x) the Consumer Bar Date or (y) thirty (30) days after the claimant is served with notice of the applicable amendment or supplement to the Schedules. For the avoidance of doubt, creditors shall not be required to file new or amended proofs of claim in response to an amendment to the Schedules or the Statement of Financial Affairs which occurs after the Consumer Bar Date, if they filed a proof of claim by the Consumer Bar Date.

5. Each proof of claim, including supporting documentation, must be submitted: (i) electronically, on or before the Consumer Bar Date by completing the applicable claim form that can be accessed at Donlin' website, www.Donlinrecano.com/clients/starion/fileclaim; (ii) if by United States mail to be actually received by Donlin on or before the Consumer Bar Date at Donlin, Recano & Company, Inc, Re: Starion Energy, Inc. et al., P.O. Box 199043, Blythebourne Station, Brooklyn, NY 11219, or (iii) if by overnight courier or hand delivery to be actually received by Donlin on or before the Consumer Bar Date at Donlin Recano & Company Inc., Re: Starion Energy Inc., et al., 6201 15th Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11219.

7. The following persons or entities are not required to file Proofs of Claim:

- the U.S. Trustee, on account of claims for fees payable pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930;
- any person or entity that has already properly filed a Proof of Claim against the correct Debtor(s) with either Donlin or the Clerk of the Court for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware;
- any person or entity (i) whose claim is listed in the Debtors' Schedules or any amendments thereto and is not described therein as "disputed," "contingent," or "unliquidated," and (iii) who does not dispute the amount or characterization of its claim as set forth in the Schedules (including that the claim is an obligation of the specific Debtor against which the claim is listed in the Schedules);
- professionals retained by the Debtors or any statutory committee pursuant to orders of this Court who assert administrative claims for fees and expenses subject to the Court's approval pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 330, 331, and 503(b);
- current officers and directors of the Debtors who assert claims for indemnification and/or contribution arising as a result of such officers' or directors' prepetition or post-petition services to the Debtors; and
- any person or entity whose claim against the Debtors has been allowed by an order of the Court, entered on or before the applicable Bar Date.

8. Any person or entity that is required to file a timely Proof of Claim in the form and manner specified by this Order and who fails to do so on or before the Consumer Bar Date (a) may be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting such claim against the Debtors or thereafter filing a Proof of Claim with respect thereto in these chapter 11 cases; (b) may not, with respect to such claim, be treated as a creditor of the Debtors for the purpose of voting on any plan in these chapter 11 cases; and (c) may not receive or be entitled to receive any payment or distribution of property from the Debtors or their successors or assigns with respect to such claim.

9. The Consumer Bar Date Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and the Proof of Claim form, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 2, are hereby approved in all respects.

10. The Debtors shall serve the Consumer Bar Date Notice and the Proof of Claim Form within five (5) days of the date on which this order is entered.

11. The Debtors are permitted to make supplemental mailings of the Consumer Bar Date Package in the event that (a) notices are returned by the post office with forwarding addresses (unless notices are returned as “returned to sender” without a forwarding address, in which cases the Debtors, after reasonable investigation to ascertain the proper address of such creditor to no avail, should not be required to mail additional notices to such creditors), (b) certain parties acting on behalf of parties in interest decline to pass along notices to these parties and instead return their names and addresses to the Debtors for direct mailing, (c) additional potential Claimants become known as the result of the noticing process, and (d) other similar circumstances at any time up to 21 days in advance of the Consumer Bar Date, with any such mailings being deemed timely and providing actual notice and the Consumer Bar Date being applicable to the recipient Claimants, if the Consumer Bar Date is applicable.

12. The form and manner of the notice of the Consumer Bar Date as set forth in this order and in the manner set forth herein (including, without limitation, the Consumer Bar Date Notice, the Consumer Bar Date Package, and any supplemental notices that the Debtors may send from time to time) is approved and constitutes (a) good, adequate, and sufficient notice to all known Consumer Customers of the Consumer Bar Date and their rights and obligations in connection with any Claims they may assert against the Debtors' in these Chapter 11 Cases and (b) satisfies the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

13. Nothing in this Order shall prejudice the rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest herein to dispute, or to assert offsets or defenses to, any claim reflected in the Schedules as to amount, liability, characterization, or otherwise, and to subsequently designate any claim as disputed, contingent or unliquidated.

14. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Motion.

15. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation or enforcement of this Order.

Set forth below is the name, the last four digits of the federal tax identification number, and address for each Debtor:

the Debtors that arose before the Petition Date; provided however, that the Consumer Bar Date does not apply to the Excluded Claims listed in paragraph 4 below. The Consumer Bar Date Order also sets procedures to be used for filing proofs of claim, which are summarized in this notice for your convenience.

3. Unless you fall into one of the categories listed in paragraph 4, you MUST file a proof of claim if you have a claim against the Debtors that arose before November 14, 2018. Acts or omissions that occurred before November 14, 2018 may give rise to claims subject to the Bar Dates even if the claims may not have become known or fixed or liquidated until after November 14, 2018. Under section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code and as used herein, the word “claim” means: (a) a right to payment, whether or not such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, legal, equitable, secured or unsecured; or (b) a right to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed, secured or unsecured.
4. The Consumer Bar Date Order provides that creditors do NOT have to file proofs of claim by the Bar Dates for the types of claims and interests listed below in this paragraph 4 (collectively, the “Excluded Claims”). You need not file a proof of claim at this time for any Excluded Claim. The Court may enter one or more separate orders at a later time requiring creditors to file proofs of claim for certain types of Excluded Claims and setting related deadlines. If the Court does enter such an order, you will receive notice of it. Excluded Claims include claims of:

 - any person or entity that has already properly filed a Proof of Claim against the correct Debtor(s) with either the Debtors or the Clerk of the Court for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware;
 - any person or entity (i) whose claim is listed in the Debtors’ Schedules or any amendments thereto, and (ii) whose claim is not described therein as “disputed,” “contingent,” or “unliquidated,” and (iii) who does not dispute the amount or characterization of its claim as set forth in the Schedules (including that the claim is an obligation of the specific Debtor against which the claim is listed in the Schedules);
 - professionals retained by the Debtors or any statutory committee pursuant to orders of this Court who assert administrative claims for fees and expenses subject to the Court’s approval pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 330, 331, and 503(b);
 - current officers and directors of the Debtors who assert claims for indemnification and/or contribution arising as a result of such officers' or directors' prepetition or post-petition services to the Debtors; and

- any person or entity whose claim against the Debtors has been allowed by an order of the Court, entered on or before the applicable Bar Date.

5. THE FACT THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED THIS NOTICE DOES NOT MEAN THAT YOU HAVE A CLAIM OR THAT THE DEBTORS BELIEVE YOU HAVE A CLAIM.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING PROOFS OF CLAIM:

6. If you file a proof of claim, your filed proof of claim must (i) be signed by the creditor asserting the claim or, if the claimant is not an individual, by an authorized agent of the claimant, (ii) be written in English, (iii) include a claim amount denominated in United States dollars, (iv) conform substantially with the proof of claim form provided by the Debtors or based on the Official Bankruptcy Form No. 410, and (v) clearly state a claim against the Debtors. Instructions for Proof of Claim

United States Bankruptcy Court

These instructions and definitions generally explain the law. In certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy cases that debtors do not file voluntarily, exceptions to these general rules may apply. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the bankruptcy process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date the case was filed.

- Attach any supporting documents to this form.
Attach redacted copies of any documents that show that the debt exists, a lien secures the debt, or both. (See the definition of redaction on the reverse page.)

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, either enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form or you may access the claims agent’s website (www.donlinrecano.com/starion) to view the filed form.

Understand the terms used in this form

Administrative expense: Generally, an expense that arises after a bankruptcy case is filed in connection with operating, liquidating, or distributing the bankruptcy estate.
11 U.S.C. § 503.

Claim: A creditor’s right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. Use the debtor's name and case number as shown in the bankruptcy notice you received. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (13).

Evidence of perfection: Evidence of perfection of a security interest may include documents showing that a security interest has been filed or recorded, such as a mortgage, lien, certificate of title, or financing statement.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Priority claim: A claim within a category of unsecured claims that is entitled to priority under 11 U.S.C. §507(a). These claims are paid from the available money or property in a bankruptcy case before other unsecured claims are paid. Common priority unsecured claims include alimony, child support, taxes, and certain unpaid wages.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the amount of debt the debtor owed to a creditor on the date of the bankruptcy filing. The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Secured claim under 11 U.S.C. §506(a): A claim backed by a lien on particular property of the debtor. A claim is secured to the extent that a creditor has the right to be paid from the property before other creditors are paid. The amount of a secured claim usually cannot be more than the value of the particular property on which the creditor has a lien. Any amount owed to a creditor that is more than the value of the property normally may be an unsecured claim. But exceptions exist; for example, see 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b) and the final sentence of 1325(a).

Examples of liens on property include a mortgage on real estate or a security interest in a car. A lien may be voluntarily granted by a debtor or may be obtained through a court proceeding. In some states, a court judgment may be a lien.

Setoff: Occurs when a creditor pays itself with money belonging to the debtor that it is holding, or by canceling a debt it owes to the debtor.

Uniform claim identifier: An optional 24-character identifier that some creditors use to facilitate electronic payment.

Unsecured claim: A claim that does not meet the requirements of a secured claim. A claim may be unsecured in part to the extent that the amount of the claim is more than the value of the property on which a creditor has a lien.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
