In the event no objections to entry of a final order on the Motion are timely received, this Court may enter such final order without need for the Final Hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized to continue the Insurance Policies, including the Insurance Policies identified on Exhibit C to the Motion, and, in their sole discretion, pay any prepetition or postpetition obligations related to the Insurance Policies, including any amounts owed to the Brokers.

4. The Debtors are authorized to renew, amend, supplement, extend, or purchase insurance policies to the extent that the Debtors determine, in their sole discretion, that such action is in the best interest of their estates. The Debtors are authorized to honor the terms of the Financing Agreements and pay premiums thereunder in an aggregate amount not to exceed $550,000, to renew the Premium Financing Agreements, and to enter into new premium financing agreements in the ordinary course of business.

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Financing Agreements, the Debtors' filing of these chapter 11 cases shall not constitute a default under the Financing Agreements.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to honor any amounts owed on account of any Insurance Policy Audits in the ordinary course of business.

7. Notwithstanding the foregoing, pending entry of the Final Order, the Debtors' payments on account of the Insurance Policies and Premium Financing Agreements shall not exceed $855,000, and the Debtors shall only make payments that become due and payable in the ordinary course of business prior to the Final Hearing.

8. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against a Debtor entity; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights or the rights of any other Person under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (g) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to the Motion are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve their rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens.

9. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized and directed to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

10. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with any Insurance Policies.

11. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) payments made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted in this Order must be in compliance with, and shall be subject to, the requirements imposed on the Debtors under the Debtors' postpetition financing agreements (the "DIP Agreements") and the terms and conditions of the interim and final orders, as applicable, approving the DIP Agreements and governing the Debtors' use of cash collateral (in either case, the "DIP Order"), and (ii) to the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Order and any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Order shall control.

12. Notwithstanding the foregoing the Debtors are only authorized, but not obligated, to make payments that become due and payable in the ordinary course of business as such payments become due and payable in the ordinary course of business, subject to limitations set forth herein.

13. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b).

14. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

15. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

17. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.
