Upon consideration of the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Establishing Procedures for Allowance, Settlement, and Payment of Certain Administrative and PACA Claims (the "Motion")² of the above captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"); and the Court having reviewed the Motion; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334; and consideration of the Motion and the relief requested therein being a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and venue being proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all the proceedings had before the Court; and after due deliberation thereon; and good and sufficient cause appearing therefore; it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED as set forth herein.

- (a) Notice and Claim Schedule. No later than 3 days after the entry of this Order, counsel to the Debtors shall serve (i) this Order and (ii) the Notice of Claim Procedures Order annexed hereto as Exhibit 1, including Schedule 1 annexed thereto (the “Claim Schedule”), which identifies Administrative and PACA Claims known to the Debtors and provides for an allowed amount of each such claim according to the Debtors’ books and records on all known claimants of the Debtors’ estates (the “Claimants”). To the extent that a claimant filed a proof of claim asserting an Administrative and PACA Claim (each, a “Filed Claim”) and the Debtors disagree with a portion or all of such amount, the Claim Schedule shall also set forth (i) the amount of the Administrative and PACA Claim asserted in the Filed Claim, (ii) the amount that the Debtors believe is the allowable amount of such Administrative and PACA Claim (the “Reduced Claim”), and (iii) the reason the Debtors believe that the Reduced Claim is accurate.
- (b) Claim Disputes. If a Claimant or other party-in-interest (i) disputes the amount of their Administrative and PACA Claim according to the Debtors’ books and records and/or the Reduced Claim, or (ii) wishes to assert an Administrative and PACA Claim not included on the Claim Schedule, such Claimant or other party (each an “Objecting Party” and collectively, the “Objecting Parties”) shall first contact counsel for the Debtors and attempt to informally resolve its dispute consensually, without the need to file a formal claim objection.
- (c) Objection Deadline. If the Debtors and the Objecting Party are unable to informally resolve a dispute, the Objecting Party shall be required to file an objection with this Court, together with documentation supporting its objection (each, a “Claim Objection”) on or before 4:00 p.m. Eastern Time on March 20, 2019 (the “Objection Deadline”) and serve such Claim Objection on (i) counsel to the Debtors, Haynes and Boone, LLP, 2323 Victory Avenue, Suite 700, Dallas, Texas 75219, Attention: Ian T. In any Claim Objection, the Objecting Party must (i) state the grounds for its objection clearly and with particularity, (ii) identify the party asserting a right to payment and the amount claimed to be owed, and (iii) if the Objecting Party has not previously filed a proof of claim, attach any supporting documentation that they would otherwise attach to a proof of claim.

- (d) Consequences of Failure to Object. Only claims on the Claim Schedule are entitled to be paid by the Debtor. Any Claimant or other interested party that believes they hold an Administrative or PACA Claim that is not on the Claim Schedule must file a Claim Objection by the Claim Objection Deadline. Any Claimant who does not timely file a Claim Objection shall be barred from (i) subsequently asserting an Administrative and PACA Claim against the Debtors or (ii) challenging the proposed amounts in the Claim Schedule. Any Administrative or PACA Claim that is not identified on the Claim Schedule shall be disallowed and forever barred from assertion against the Debtors and their estates, and such claims shall be deemed waived and released as of the date these cases are dismissed. 4. The Claim Procedures shall be the sole and exclusive method for the reconciliation and payment of Administrative and PACA Claims.

5. The Notice of Claim Procedures Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, is hereby approved in all respects.

6. To the extent applicable, the 14-day stay to effectiveness of this Order provided by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) is waived and this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry.

7. The Debtors are authorized to take such steps as may be necessary or appropriate in order to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order.

8. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prohibit the Debtors from timely satisfying undisputed postpetition administrative claims or postpetition claims asserted under the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act, 7 U.S.C. § 499(e)(c) (“PACA”) of FreshPoint North Carolina, Inc. or FreshPoint Nashville, Inc., in the ordinary course of business, and FreshPoint North Carolina, Inc. reserves the right to apply on an expedited basis to the Court for immediate payment of any undisputed postpetition PACA Claim.
