Release by Holders of Channeled Claims. The release and injunction provisions set forth in Article XII of the Joint Plan are an integral part of the Debtor's overall restructuring efforts and are an essential element in obtaining the Protected Parties' and Settling Insurers' support for the Joint Plan.

Article XII of the Joint Plan contains the following Release, Injunction, and Exculpation provisions:

A. Release by Debtor of Claims Against Protected Parties and Settling Insurers (Section 12.3.8 of the Joint Plan)

Except for obligations arising under any executory contract assumed by the Reorganized Debtor, obligations under any settlement agreement (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any Insurance Settlement Agreement), and any Claims excepted from exculpation and discharge, the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, and the Estate, waive, release, settle, and compromise on the Effective Date any and all Claims or causes of action of every kind and nature that the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, or the Estate have or may have against a Protected Party or Settling Insurer Releasee, including without limitation, Avoidance Actions and any Claim that such Protected Party or Settling Insurer Releasee or its assets are a part of, or are owned by, the Debtor or the Estate. No such Claim will survive the Effective Date or be deemed to be assigned to the Trust. 28 An exculpatory clause in a Chapter 11 plan is a provision that shields key stakeholders— such as debtors, creditors' committees, lenders, and their professionals—from liability for actions taken during the bankruptcy case. Section 12.2 of the Joint Plan provides for the exculpating or limiting the liability of certain parties, including the Debtor, the Reorganized Debtor, the Committee, and other parties. The Exculpation Clause may affect the rights, Claims, and/or Causes of Action of Holders of Claims, including Holders of Abuse Claims, in relation to the exculpated parties.

The exculpation states that from and after the Effective Date, none of the Exculpated Parties shall have or incur any liability for any Claim by any other Exculpated Party, by any Holder of a Claim, or by any other party in interest, for any act or omission (i) that occurred from the Petition Date through the Effective Date in connection with this Chapter 11 Case or (ii) in connection with the formulation, negotiation, or pursuit of confirmation of this Plan, except for Claims arising from the gross negligence, willful misconduct, fraud, or breach of the fiduciary duty of loyalty of any Exculpated Party, in each case subject to determination of such by Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction and provided that any Exculpated Party shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to its duties and responsibilities (if any) under this Plan. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to and granted benefits of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Channeling Injunction.
