THE NOTICE PROCEDURES

On April 23, 2022, the Court entered an order (the “Order”) approving the notice procedures that will govern in the Chapter 11 Cases (the “Notice Procedures”) set forth herein pursuant to section 105(a) of title 11 of the U.S. Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), rules 1015(c), 2002(m), 9007, and 9036 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), rule 2002-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of Texas (the “Local Bankruptcy Rules”), and paragraphs 4(g) and 4(e) of the Procedures for Complex Cases in the Southern District of Texas (the “Complex Case Procedures”). Pursuant to the Order, all notices served in accordance with the Notice Procedures constitute sufficient notice under the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, and the Complex Case Procedures. Additionally, while the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, and the Complex Case Procedures apply to the Chapter 11 Cases, to the extent there is a conflict between the foregoing and the Notice Procedures, the Notice Procedures govern in all respects.

¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal tax identification number, are: GWG Holdings, Inc. (2607); GWG Life, LLC (6955); and GWG Life USA, LLC (5538). The location of Debtor GWG Holdings, Inc.’s principal place of business and the Debtors’ service address is 325 N. Further information regarding the Debtors and these chapter 11 cases is available at the website of the Debtors’ proposed claims and noticing agent: <https://donlinrecano.com/gwg>.

Accordingly, all parties in interest are strongly encouraged to review the Notice Procedures in their entirety and consult their own legal counsel with respect to any of the matters discussed herein.

- (d) the DIP Lender;
- (e) National Founders LP;
- (f) CLMG Corp. and LNV Corporation;

- (h) counsel to the plaintiffs in the Putative Securities Class Action Suit;
- (i) counsel to the plaintiffs in the California Collection Suit;
- (j) the Attorney General of each state in which the Debtors conduct business;
- (k) any party that has formally appeared in the chapter 11 case and requested service pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002; and
- (l) any party that has requested notice pursuant to the Notice Procedures.

2. The Debtors will update the Master Service List to include those persons or parties that have made a written request to be include on the Master Service List: (a) every seven days during the first thirty days of these cases; (b) every fifteen days during the next sixty days; and (c) monthly thereafter throughout the pendency of the cases. The Debtors will file each updated Master Service List with the Court, but in accordance with the Complex Case Procedures, updated lists will not be filed if there have been no changes.

3. The Debtors will serve each party listed on the Master Service List with a copy of every motion, application, notice, brief, objection, response, memorandum, affidavit, declaration, or other writing filed by the Debtors in these cases (including notices and orders entered by the Court). The Debtors will serve the parties on the Master Service List by email; provided that if any party on the master service list does not maintain an email address, then the Debtors will serve notice to such party by regular mail.

4. Additionally, pursuant to the Complex Case Procedures, “parties on the master service list who appear through counsel or submit a request for service by CM/ECF will be served with pleadings and orders through CM/ECF notification system. No other form of notice will be required.” See Complex Case Procedures ¶ 11(a). Such registered participants will receive a “Notice of Electronic Filing” via email whenever a filing is made, which will provide additional notice to such parties. If a party does not have access to email, then such party will be served by U.S. mail, overnight delivery, facsimile, or hand delivery.

5. Upon completion of noticing of any pleading filed by the Debtors, Donlin, Recano & Company (“DRC” or the “Claims and Noticing Agent”) will file with the Court either an affidavit or certification of service and an attached list of parties receiving notice, generally within three business days of service.

11. In addition, any Bondholder, whether a Direct Holder or Indirect Holder, who wishes to receive notice of all court filings directly may do so by (i) submitting a request to be added to the Master Service List on the Debtors' case website located at <https://donlinrecano.com/gwg>² or (ii) filing a request for inclusion on the Master Service List (each, a "Master Service List Notice Request") with the Court, substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 2 to the Order. For the debtor listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read both pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtor or the debtor's property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtor. Creditors cannot demand repayment from the debtor by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees.

Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debt. A creditor who wants to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the bankruptcy clerk's office within the deadline specified in this notice. (See line 11 below for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney. All documents filed in the case may be inspected at the bankruptcy clerk's office at the address listed below or through PACER (Public Access to Court Electronic Records at www.pacer.gov).

A form to open an account on the bankruptcy court's electronic case filing system may be obtained at: <http://www.txs.uscourts.gov/sites/txs/files/CRECFform.pdf>.

The staff of the bankruptcy clerk's office cannot give legal advice.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case.

Proof of Claim Deadline:

Deadline for filing proof of claim:

Unless a different date is subsequently ordered by the Court, July 29, 2022

Government Proof of Claim:
October 17, 2022

A proof of claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A proof of claim form may be obtained at www.uscourts.gov or any bankruptcy clerk's office.

	Your claim will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless: Your claim is designated as disputed, contingent or unliquidated; You file a proof of claim in a different amount; or You receive another notice If your claim is not scheduled or if your claim is designated as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, you must file a proof of claim or you might not be paid on your claim and you might be unable to vote on a plan. You may file a proof of claim even if your claim is scheduled. You may review the schedules at the bankruptcy clerk's office or online at www.pacer.gov
	Secured creditors retain rights in their collateral regardless of whether they file a proof of claim. Filing a proof of claim submits a creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a proof of claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial.
Exception to discharge deadline The bankruptcy clerk's office must receive a complaint and any required filing fee by the following deadline.	You must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint if you want to have a debt excepted from discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d)(6)(A). Deadline for filing the complaint: August 28, 2022
Creditors with a Foreign Address	If you are a creditor receiving notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
Filing a Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	Chapter 11 allows debtors to reorganize or liquidate according to a plan. A plan is not effective unless the court confirms it. You may receive a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you may have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will receive notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate its business.
Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d). A discharge means that creditors may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you want to have a particular debt owed to you excepted from the discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d)(6)(A), you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint and paying the filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the deadline.
