order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and it appearing that venue of these cases and of the Application is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court being satisfied based on the representations made in the Application and the Bracco Declaration that said accountants represent no interest adverse to the Debtors' estates, with respect to the matters upon which they are to be engaged, that they are disinterested persons as that term is defined under section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that their employment is necessary and is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED that the Application is GRANTED as set forth herein; and it is further

ORDERED that, in accordance with sections 327(a), 328(a), and 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 2014, and Local Rule 2014, the Debtors are authorized to retain and employ Anchin, nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Engagement Letter as modified in this Order; and it is further ORDERED that the indemnification provisions in the Engagement Letter are approved, subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases:

- a. Anchin shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the Engagement Letter for services other than those described in the Engagement Letter, unless such services and indemnification therefor are approved by the Court;
- b. The Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify Anchin, or provide contribution or reimbursement to Anchin, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from Anchin's gross negligence or willful misconduct; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege the breach of Anchin's contractual obligations unless the Court determines that indemnification, contribution or reimbursement would be permissible pursuant to In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination as to the exclusions set forth in clauses (i) and (ii) above, but determined by the Court, after notice and a hearing to be a claim or expense for which Anchin should not receive indemnity, contribution or reimbursement under the terms of the Engagement Letter as modified by this Order;

- c. If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), and (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, Anchin believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Letter (as modified by this Order), including without limitation the advancement of defense costs, Anchin must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to Anchin before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by Anchin for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify Anchin. All parties-in-interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by Anchin for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement; and
- d. Any limitation on liability pursuant to the terms of the Engagement Letter shall be eliminated; and it is further ORDERED that Anchin shall apply to the Court for allowances of compensation and reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred in respect of services provided to the Debtors in the chapter 11 cases after the Petition Date in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and such other orders as the Court may direct, including, without limitation, any order of this Court establishing procedures for interim compensation and reimbursement of professionals retained in these chapter 11 cases. If Anchin's applicable fees increase from the fees set forth in the Application, Anchin shall provide notice describing such increases the first time such rates are billed; and it is further

ORDERED that the Debtors and Anchin are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Application; and it is further ORDERED that this Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.
