“Declarations”) submitted concurrently with the Application, and (iii) the other declarations and exhibits filed in these Cases; and the Court being satisfied, based on the representations made in the Application, the Statement, and the Declarations, that KTB&S does not represent or hold any interest adverse to the Debtors or the Debtors’ estates, and is disinterested as that term is defined under section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, and as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that the employment of KTB&S is in the best interests of the Debtors and the Debtors’ estates; and it appearing that the Court has jurisdiction to consider the Application pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1334 and 157, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware dated February 29, 2012; and it appearing that the Application is a core matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2) and that the Court may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and it appearing that venue of these Cases and of the Application is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and it appearing that due and adequate notice of the Application has been given under the circumstances, and that no other or further notice need be given; and this Court having reviewed the Application; and after due deliberation and good and sufficient cause appearing; it is hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Application is GRANTED, as set forth herein.
2. Pursuant to section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized to employ and retain KTB&S as counsel, effective nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, on the terms set forth in the Application, the Statement, and the Engagement Agreement.
3. KTB&S shall apply for compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the Debtors’ Cases in compliance with sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Rules, Local Rules, and any other applicable procedures and orders of the Court. KTB&S also intends to make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee's requests for information and additional disclosures as set forth in the Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. § 330 by Attorneys in Larger Chapter 11 Cases Effective as of November 1, 2013, both in connection with the Application and the interim and final fee applications to be filed by KTB&S in these Cases.

4. KTB&S may hold the amount of the Retainer existing as of the Petition Date during the Cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses under the Engagement Agreement. The Retainer shall be applied to KTB&S's final application for fees and expenses as approved by the Court. In the event the Retainer exceeds the unpaid amount, KTB&S shall remit the excess to the Debtors or their successors, as applicable.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Engagement Agreement to the contrary, the Engagement Agreement does not supersede the requirements of 11 U.S.C. § 327(a) that govern the retention of counsel for the Debtors. KTB&S shall make all required disclosures and, in the event a material conflict arises, take all required actions to address and resolve the conflict.

6. KTB&S shall not withdraw as counsel to the Debtors during the course of the Chapter 11 Cases absent further order of the Court approving such withdrawal.

7. Notwithstanding any provision in the Bankruptcy Rules to the contrary: (i) this Order shall be effective immediately and enforceable upon its entry; (ii) the Debtors are not subject to any stay in the implementation, enforcement, or realization of the relief granted in this Order; and (iii) the Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary or appropriate to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order.

8. Notice of the Application shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such motion, and the requirements of the Local Rules are satisfied by the contents of the Application.

9. This Court retains jurisdiction and power with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.
