Re: In re Quebecor World (USA) Inc., Chapter 11 Case No. 08-10152(jmp) –
Demand for Reclamation of Goods by Newsweek, Inc.

Dear Mr. Canning:

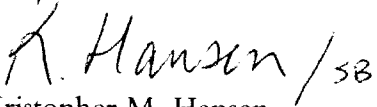

Pursuant to section 546(c) of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) and section 2-702 of the Uniform Commercial Code, our client Newsweek, Inc. (“Newsweek”) hereby demands the return of all goods (the “Goods”), of any kind or character, received by Quebecor World (USA) Inc. or any of its affiliates (collectively, “Quebecor”) from Newsweek pursuant to that certain Agreement dated as of June 22, 1994, as amended, between Newsweek and World Color Press, Inc. (now Quebecor World (USA) Inc.) during the 45-day period prior to the commencement of the chapter 11 proceedings of Quebecor World (USA) Inc. and its affiliated debtors (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) on January 21, 2008. We will be providing Quebecor with further information regarding the Goods for which reclamation is sought.

Newsweek makes this demand for reclamation without prejudice to other rights and remedies available to it at law or in equity, including but not limited to Newsweek’s right to an allowed administrative expense under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code for the Goods received by Quebecor within 20 days before the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases. Newsweek reserves the right to amend and supplement this demand and to provide further information in support of its right to reclamation.
