"Custodial Funds" (listed as such in EXHIBIT SOFA.11 to the Statement of Financial Affairs) constitute property in which the Debtor has neither a legal or equitable interest or that would not otherwise be considered to be property of the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §541(a). In the case of Custodial Funds, the Debtor acts as a mere conduit. Monies are solicited and contributed for a specific purpose or program and, as those contributions are collected, they are held by the Debtor as a matter of convenience so that the funds can be transmitted to the recipient in a single check or wire, particularly since many of the donations are in cash and in small denominations. Accordingly, the "Custodial Funds" are property held for another and are not property of the estate pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §541.
