 - i. deleting the word “releases”; and
 - ii. amending and restating sub-clause (a)(ii) thereof as follows: “(ii) with respect to other parties in interest, June 10, 2019.”
 - c. Section 5(a) of the First Interim Order shall be deemed amended by replacing “35 days after the Petition Date” with “May 24, 2019”;
 - d. Section 5(d) of the First Interim Order shall be deemed amended by replacing “December 3, 2018” with “May 24, 2019”;

6. Nothing in this Order or the Prior Interim Orders prejudices the right of any party (each a "Customer Counterparty") to any refining, metal lease, purchase, metal purchase, or similar agreement or course of dealing, whether oral or written (a "Refining or Purchase Agreement") to challenge any of the following:

- a. whether any property provided to, transferred to, or in the possession of the Debtors under any Refining or Purchase Agreement entered into between the applicable Debtor and such Customer Counterparty or the proceeds thereof, including any property that has been prepaid by a Customer and/or which contains a Customer's identifying mark (collectively, "Disputed Property") constitutes property of the Debtors or their estates;

7. Additional amounts due under such leases, if any, for March 2019, shall be paid to the Bast Amron Trust Account, and amounts due for months thereafter shall be deposited by the Debtors into a segregated debtor-in-possession account on May 1, 2019 and the first Business Day of each month thereafter (as applicable), subject to mutual agreement among the Debtors, the Secured Parties and the Lessors (as defined in the Motion to Compel) of the applicable amounts due and owing. All amounts segregated pursuant to this Paragraph 7 shall remain segregated pending further order of the Court. All parties reserve all rights, claims and defenses with respect to the leases and the amounts due thereunder and waive none.

8. Entry of this Order is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.
