Miami Metals I, Inc., et al., as debtors and debtors-in-possession (collectively the "Debtors") in the above-captioned Chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"), by and through their undersigned counsel hereby file this Motion for Approval of the Settlement Agreement

<sup>2</sup> The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, include: Miami Metals I, Inc. attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A (the "Settlement Agreement"), by and among the Debtors, the Senior Lenders (as defined below), and Coeur Mining, Inc. ("CMI"), on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries Coeur Mexicana S.A. de C.V. ("Mexicana") and Coeur Rochester, Inc. ("Rochester" and together with CMI and Rochester, collectively, "Coeur"), pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9019. In support of this Motion, the Debtors say:

JURISDICTION

1. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

2. Venue in the Court is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

3. The statutory bases for the relief requested herein are section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").

BACKGROUND

4. On November 2, 2018 (the "First Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), initiating these Chapter 11 Cases. On November 21, 2018, certain additional debtors (collectively with the Debtors, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions for relief under the Bankruptcy Code, initiating their Chapter 11 Cases.

5. The Debtors continue in possession of their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 1107(a) and 1109. On November 19, 2018, the United States Trustee gave notice of the appointment of an Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") [ECF No. 113].

6. Additional details regarding these Chapter 11 Cases are available in the Declaration of Scott Avila, as Chief Restructuring Officer (the “CRO”), in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions [ECF No. 2].

7. Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A., New York Branch, Brown Brothers Harriman & Co., Bank Hapoalim B.M., Mitsubishi International Corporation, ICBC Standard Bank PLC, Techemet Metal Trading LLC, Merced Partners Limited Partnership, Athilon Capital Corp. LLC and Hain Capital Investors Master Fund, Ltd., together with their respective predecessors and successors in interest (collectively, the “Senior Lenders”) are each party to a credit agreement, master netting agreement or lease agreement with the Debtors entered into prior to the Petition Date (the “Secured Credit/Lease Documents”).

8. The Debtors and the Senior Lenders assert, and Coeur disputes, that the obligations under the Secured Credit/Lease Documents (the “Prepetition Obligations”) are secured by valid and perfected liens (the “Prepetition Liens”) on substantially all of the Debtors’ assets, including the Debtors’ purported inventory and cash.

9. On the Petition Date, the Debtors filed the Motion For Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to the Secured Parties, (III) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the “Initial Cash Collateral Motion”) [ECF No. 10].

10. On November 13, 2018, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders filed the Joint Supplement of the Debtors and the Senior Lenders to the Cash Collateral Motion (together with the Initial Cash Collateral Motion, the “Cash Collateral Motion”) [ECF No. 78].

11. The Bankruptcy Court has entered ten interim cash collateral orders [ECF Nos. 54, 277, 372, 538, 675, 864, 987, 1160, 1237, and 1356] (collectively, the “Interim Cash Collateral Orders”).

12. Pursuant to the Interim Cash Collateral Orders, among other things, the Senior Lenders consented to the Debtors’ use of their cash collateral to fund the costs and expenses of administering the Chapter 11 Cases, and the Senior Lenders were granted superpriority claims (“Superpriority Claims”) and adequate protection liens on substantially all of the Debtors’ assets (the “Adequate Protection Liens”) to protect against any diminution in value of the Prepetition Collateral.

13. Numerous of the Debtors’ customers (including Coeur) objected to the Cash Collateral Motion on the basis that the Debtors’ purported precious metal inventory and its cash proceeds were property of such customers rather than property of the Debtors’ estates, giving rise to a dispute (the “Ownership Dispute”) concerning the ownership of such assets governed by uniform procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court (as amended, the “Uniform Procedures”) [ECF Nos. 395, 913, and 1196].

14. Mexicana and Debtor Miami Metals II, Inc. (f/k/a Republic Metals Corporation) (“RMC”) are parties to a certain letter agreement dated January 1, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, the “Mexicana Contract”) relating to precious metal produced by Mexicana’s Palmarejo mine.

15. Rochester and RMC are parties to a certain letter agreement dated January 1, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, the “Rochester Contract”) and together with the Mexicana Contract, the “Coeur Contracts”) relating to precious metal produced by Rochester’s Rochester mine.

16. Coeur asserts that it retained title to and ownership of the precious metals delivered to the Debtors pursuant to the Coeur Contracts (the “Disputed Materials”) and that such metals and the proceeds thereof are not property of the Debtors’ estates.

17. The Debtors and the Senior Lenders assert that the Debtors own the Disputed Materials and that such materials and the proceeds thereof are property of the Debtors’ estates and are subject to the Prepetition Liens and Adequate Protection Liens of the Senior Lenders.

18. On November 20, 2018, Coeur delivered a letter making a reclamation demand to the Debtors [Docket No. 124] (the “Reclamation Demand”) and on November 21, 2018, Coeur filed an objection to the Cash Collateral Motion [Docket No. 146] (the “Cash Collateral Objection”).

19. On January 18, 2019, Coeur filed a Statement of Claimed Ownership and Claims of Coeur Mexicana S.A. de C.V., Coeur Rochester, Inc., and Wharf Resources (U.S.A.), Inc. (“Wharf”) [Docket No. 470] (the “Initial Customer Statement”) pursuant to the Uniform Procedures which asserted, among other things, Coeur’s title to and ownership claims to the Disputed Materials and incorporated the Cash Collateral Objection by reference.

20. On March 11, 2019, Coeur filed an amendment to the Initial Customer Statement [Docket No. 763] (the “Supplemental Customer Statement” and together with the Initial Customer Statement, the “Customer Statement”).

21. On April 1, 2019, Wharf filed a notice withdrawing from participation in the Uniform Procedures pursuant to a certain settlement agreement dated February 15, 2019 among Wharf, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders [Docket No. 866] and amending the Customer Statement to reflect the foregoing [Docket No. 877].

22. On April 11, 2019 (i) Mexicana filed proof of claim nos. 318 and 319 against RMC and (ii) Rochester filed proof of claim no. 320 against RMC (collectively, the “Proofs of Claim”).

23. On June 21, 2019, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders filed a joint motion for summary judgment [Docket No. 1202] seeking, among other things, to dismiss the Customer Statement as a “Bucket 4” customer ownership claim and overrule the Cash Collateral Objection (the “Summary Judgment Motion”).

RELIEF REQUESTED

24. Through this Motion, with the agreement of the Senior Lender, the Debtors request approval of the Settlement Agreement attached hereto and incorporated herein as Exhibit A<sup>2</sup> by and among Coeur, RMC, and the Senior Lenders as to (i) all of Coeur's claims against RMC, and (ii) all of the Debtors' and Senior Lenders' claims against Coeur, including but not limited to the following material terms:

- (a) Settlement Payment. As consideration for the resolution of any and all existing disputes among the Parties, within two (2) business days of the Effective Date (as defined below), the Debtors shall pay to Coeur $2,600,000 in immediately available funds to be divided in the following manner: (i) $1,934,481.69 to Mexicana, and (ii) $665,518.31 to Rochester.
- (b) Allowed Claims. Upon the Effective Date:
  - (i) Coeur shall be granted an allowed administrative expense claim against RMC under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of $7,000,000 (the “Allowed 503(b)(9) Claim”);
  - (ii) Coeur shall be granted an allowed general unsecured claim against RMC in the amount of $3,431,659 (the “Allowed GUC Claim” and, together with the Allowed 503(b)(9) Claim, the “Allowed Claims”); and
  - (iii) The Debtors shall instruct their claims agent, Donlin Recano & Company, Inc., to enter the Allowed Claims in the claims register and to expunge all other Coeur claims from the claims register (including the Proofs of Claim and any other claims scheduled by the Debtors).

(c) Ownership Dispute.

(i) Upon the Effective Date, the Reclamation Demand and the Customer Statement shall be deemed immediately withdrawn with prejudice.

(ii) Upon execution of the Settlement Agreement, all deadlines under the Uniform Procedures solely with respect to Coeur are stayed pending the occurrence of the Effective Date.

(d) Consent to Plan. Upon the Effective Date, Coeur shall vote (if solicited) in favor of and not, directly or indirectly, object to any plan of liquidation supported by the Senior Lenders and the Debtors so long as the plan provides treatment for administrative expense claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code that is no less favorable than that set forth in the plan filed at Docket No. 1295 (as amended or modified, the "Plan"). The Debtors shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Coeur is added to the list of "Releasees" as defined in the Plan, and is otherwise entitled to the same third party release available to the other Parties under the Plan.

(e) Consent to Collateral Order. Upon the Effective Date, the Cash Collateral Objection shall be deemed immediately withdrawn with prejudice and Coeur shall not, directly or indirectly, object to any final cash collateral order supported by the Senior Lenders.

(f) Mutual Releases.

(i) Upon the Effective Date, each Debtor, each Debtor's estate and each Senior Lender, each on behalf of itself, its respective predecessors, successors and assigns and each of their respective affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors or counsel (each in their capacity as such) (collectively, the "Debtor/Lender Entities"), will irrevocably waive, release and discharge all claims, obligations, suits, judgments, remedies, damages, demands, debts, rights, causes of action, and liabilities that the Debtor/Lender Entities have, may have or are entitled to assert, whether known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, in law, equity, or otherwise, including, without limitation, all claims under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and state fraudulent conveyances, fraudulent transfer and other similar state laws (each, a "Claim"), against (i) Coeur, its predecessors, successors, assigns and each of their affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors and counsel (each in their capacity as such), and (ii) trade counterparties and contract counterparties (each solely in their capacity as such) of the foregoing, solely with respect to transfers of cash, precious metals or metals credits received by such parties at the direction of Coeur, together with each of their affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors and counsel (each in their capacity as such) (collectively, the entities set forth in (i) and (ii) above, the “Coeur Entities”), based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or occurrence with respect to the Coeur Contracts, the Disputed Materials and/or any transfers of cash, precious metals or metals credits pursuant to the Coeur Contracts or the business relationship or course of dealings between Coeur and the Debtors; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not release or discharge (i) any obligations arising under and pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, or (ii) any claims relating to any breach of the obligations arising under and pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

(ii) Upon the Effective Date, Coeur, on behalf of itself and each Coeur Entity (including, without limitation, Mexicana and Rochester), will irrevocably waive, release and discharges all Claims against each Debtor/Lender Entity based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or occurrence with respect to the Coeur Contracts, the Disputed Materials, the Ownership Dispute, the Secured Credit/Lease Documents, the Prepetition Obligations, the Prepetition Liens and the Cash Collateral Motion; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not release or discharge (i) any obligations arising under and pursuant to the Settlement Agreement, (ii) the Allowed Claims or (iii) any claims relating to any breach of the obligations arising under and pursuant to the Settlement Agreement.

(g) Effective Date. The Settlement Agreement is conditioned upon occurrence of the “Effective Date,” which means the first date by which each of the following conditions has occurred:

- (i) The Settlement Agreement is executed by each of the Parties; and
- (ii) The Court enters an order approving the Settlement Agreement in a form and substance acceptable to the Parties, provided that such order has not been stayed.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

25. Bankruptcy Rule 9019 provides that, upon the motion of the debtor-in-possession, “after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a). Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Court to enter any order “that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of” the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

26. A court must determine that a settlement under Bankruptcy Rule 9019 is fair, equitable, and in the best interests of the estate before it may approve a settlement. In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 134 B.R. 493, 496 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (citing Protective Comm. for Indep. Stockholders of TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc. v. Anderson, 390 U.S. 414, 424, 88 S.Ct. 1157, 20 L.Ed.2d 1 (1968)); see also In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. 561, 593–94 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010); In re Lehman Bros. Holdings, 435 B.R. 122, 134 (S.D.N.Y. 2010).

27. A court’s responsibility is to “canvass the issues and see whether the settlement falls below the lowest point in the range of reasonableness.” Chemtura, 439 B.R. at 594 (quoting In re W.T. Grant, Co., 699 F.2d 599, 608 (2d Cir.1983)) (internal quotations omitted). But the court is not required to go so far as to conduct a trial on the terms to approve a settlement. See id. Before making a determination, however, the court must inform itself of “all facts necessary for an intelligent and objective opinion of the probabilities of ultimate success should the claim be litigated.” O’Connell v. Packles (In re Hilsen), 404 B.R. 58, 70 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2009) (internal quotations omitted) (quoting TMT Trailer Ferry, 390 U.S. at 424, 88 S.Ct. 1157). Although courts have discretion to approve settlements, the business judgment of the debtor in recommending the settlement should be factored into the court’s analysis. See JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A. v. Charter Commc’ns Operating LLC (In re Charter Commc’ns), 419 B.R. 221, 252 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009). “At the same time, a court may not simply defer to a debtor in possession’s judgment, but must independently evaluate the reasonableness of the settlement.” In re Rosenberg, 419 B.R. 532, 536 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 2009) (citations omitted). In addition, courts may give weight to the opinion of bankruptcy counsel supporting the settlement. See id. (“In [approving the settlement agreement], the court is permitted to rely upon ‘opinions of the trustee, the parties, and their attorneys.’”); Chemtura, 439 B.R. at 594.

28. To that end, courts have developed standards to evaluate if a settlement is fair and equitable and identified factors for approval of settlements based on the original framework announced in TMT Trailer Ferry, Inc., 390 U.S. 414, 88 S.Ct. 1157, 20 L.Ed.2d 1 (1968). The Second Circuit outlined the test for consideration of settlements under the Bankruptcy Rules in Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d at 462. The factors to be considered are interrelated and require the court to evaluate:

- (1) the balance between the litigation’s possibility of success and the settlement’s future benefits;
- (2) the likelihood of complex and protracted litigation, “with its attendant expense, inconvenience, and delay,” including the difficulty in collecting on the judgment;
- (3) “the paramount interests of the creditors,” including each affected class’s relative benefits “and the degree to which creditors either do not object to or affirmatively support the proposed settlement;”
- (4) whether other parties in interest support the settlement;
- (5) the “competency and experience of counsel” supporting, and “[t]he experience and knowledge of the bankruptcy court judge” reviewing, the settlement;
- (6) “the nature and breadth of releases to be obtained by officers and directors;” and
- (7) “the extent to which the settlement is the product of arm’s length bargaining.”

29. The factors militate in favor of approving the Settlement Agreement with Coeur.

30. Without this settlement, Coeur, the Debtors, and the Senior Lenders will incur costs in litigating Coeur's Reclamation Demand, Cash Collateral Objection, and Customer Statement, as well as issues related to Coeur's Proofs of Claim. The interests of the creditors are served by the reduction of administrative expenses. Moreover, the results of any litigation, particularly one as complex as the Ownership Dispute with Coeur, are uncertain. While the Debtors and Senior Lenders believe that they would prevail in the Ownership Dispute, there are substantial risks associated with litigating the Ownership Dispute with Coeur to its conclusion (including potentially through any appeals). Among other things, Coeur has asserted various terms in the Coeur Contracts and its course of dealings with the Debtors, which it asserts are indicative of a bailment and prepetition ownership of the Disputed Materials. Such arguments could sway the Court in ruling in Coeur's favor, or could be successful on appeal. If Coeur were to prevail on the merits, its ownership claim would greatly exceed the Settlement Payment.

31. With respect to any claims held by the Debtors and/or Senior Lenders against Coeur (all of which are being released as part and parcel of the Settlement Agreement), such claims are similarly laden with risk. Coeur has asserted significant defenses to any claims arising under section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, including but not limited to facts evidencing (in Coeur's view) the provision of subsequent new value to the Debtors, as well as facts supporting an argument that any prepetition transfers to Coeur were in the "ordinary course of business" as contemplated by section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors would bear significant financial risk and incur significant costs in pursuing these chapter 5 claims.

32. The Senior Lenders and Coeur are each represented by sophisticated counsel, both of whom performed detailed analyses on the claims released as part of the Settlement Agreement, and were deeply involved in the negotiation of the settlement terms underlying the Settlement Agreement.

33. The Settlement Agreement is the result of arm's length bargaining and the product of voluntary and independent negotiations by and between the Senior Lenders and Coeur. No special relationships among the parties exist. Upon information and belief, neither the parties, nor their counsel, are related or affiliates of the other.

34. The Settlement Agreement is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates, creditors, and interested parties because the Settlement Agreement better enables the Debtors to propose a confirmable plan.

35. The Debtors submit that the Settlement Agreement represents a sound and good faith exercise of the business judgment of the Debtors in that the Settlement Agreement greatly advances progress toward confirmation of a plan.

36. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request the Court grant this Motion and approve the Settlement Agreement.

NO PREVIOUS REQUEST

37. No prior motion for the relief requested herein has been made by the Debtors to this or any other court.

NOTICE

38. The Debtors have provided notice of this Motion to: (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York; (ii) counsel to the Debtors' Senior Lenders; (iii) the parties listed in the consolidated list of thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors filed by the Debtors in these Chapter 11 Cases; (iv) counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors; (v) parties settling disputes pursuant to this Motion; and (vi) any other party entitled to notice pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(b) (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth above, the Debtors respectfully request the Court enter an Order in substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (i) approving the Settlement Agreement, and (ii) granting such other and further relief as requested herein or as the Court otherwise deems necessary and appropriate.

EXHIBIT A

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of September 5, 2019, by and among the following “Parties”: (a) Miami Metals I, Inc. (f/k/a Republic Metals Refining Corporation), on behalf of itself and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession in the Chapter 11 Cases described below (collectively, the “Debtors”); (b) Coeur Mining, Inc. (“CMI”), on behalf of itself and its subsidiaries Coeur Mexicana S.A. de C.V. (“Mexicana”) and Coeur Rochester, Inc. (“Rochester” and together with CMI and Rochester, collectively, “Coeur”); and (c) Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A., New York Branch, Brown Brothers Harriman & Co., Bank Hapoalim B.M., Mitsubishi International Corporation, ICBC Standard Bank Plc, Techemet Metal Trading LLC, Merced Partners Limited Partnership, Athilon Capital Corp. LLC and Hain Capital Investors Master Fund, Ltd., together with their respective predecessors and successors in interest (collectively, the “Senior Lenders”).

RECITALS

WHEREAS, on November 2, 2018 (the “Petition Date”), certain Debtors commenced chapter 11 cases (the “Chapter 11 Cases”) under title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) that are presently pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”).

WHEREAS, each Senior Lender is party to a credit agreement, master netting agreement or lease agreement with the Debtors entered into prior to the Petition Date (as such agreements may be amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Credit and Lease Agreements”) and together with any and all related collateral and security documents, guarantees and other loan documents, the “Secured Credit/Lease Documents”).

WHEREAS, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders assert, and Coeur disputes, that the obligations under the Secured Credit/Lease Documents (the “Prepetition Obligations”) are secured by valid and perfected liens (the “Prepetition Liens”) on substantially all of the Debtors’ assets, including the Debtors’ inventory and the Debtors’ cash.

WHEREAS, on the Petition Date, the Debtors filed the Motion For Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to the Secured Parties, (III) Scheduling a Final Hearing and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the “Initial Cash Collateral Motion”) [Docket No. 10].

WHEREAS, on November 13, 2018, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders filed the Joint Supplement of the Debtors and the Senior Lenders to the Cash Collateral Motion (together with the Initial Cash Collateral Motion, the “Cash Collateral Motion”) [Docket No. 78].

WHEREAS, the Bankruptcy Court has entered nine interim cash collateral orders [Docket Nos. 54, 277, 372, 538, 675, 864, 987, 1160 and 1237] (collectively, the “Interim Cash Collateral Orders”).

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Interim Cash Collateral Orders, among other things, the Senior Lenders consented to the Debtors’ use of their cash collateral to fund the costs and expenses of administering the Chapter 11 Cases, and the Senior Lenders were granted superpriority claims (“Superpriority Claims”) and adequate protection liens on substantially all of the Debtors’ assets

(the “Adequate Protection Liens”) to protect against any diminution in value of the Prepetition Collateral.

WHEREAS, numerous of the Debtors’ customers (including Coeur) objected to the Cash Collateral Motion on the basis that the Debtors’ precious metal inventory and its cash proceeds were property of such customers rather than property of the Debtors’ estates, giving rise to a dispute (the “Ownership Dispute”) concerning the ownership of such assets governed by uniform procedures approved by the Bankruptcy Court (as amended, the “Uniform Procedures”) [Docket Nos. 395, 913 and 1196].

WHEREAS, Mexicana and Debtor Miami Metals II, Inc. (f/k/a Republic Metals Corporation) (“RMC”) are parties to a certain letter agreement dated January 1, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, the “Mexicana Contract”) relating to precious metal produced by Mexicana’s Palmarejo mine.

WHEREAS, Rochester and RMC are parties to a certain letter agreement dated January 1, 2017 (as amended, restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, the “Rochester Contract” and together with the Mexicana Contract, the “Coeur Contracts”) relating to precious metal produced by Rochester’s Rochester mine.

WHEREAS, Coeur asserts that it retained title to and ownership of the precious metals delivered to the Debtors pursuant to the Coeur Contracts (the “Disputed Materials”) and that such metals and the proceeds thereof are not property of the Debtors’ estates.

WHEREAS, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders assert that the Debtors own the Disputed Materials and that such materials and the proceeds thereof are property of the Debtors’ estates and are subject to the Prepetition Liens and Adequate Protection Liens of the Senior Lenders.

WHEREAS, on November 20, 2018, Coeur delivered a letter making a reclamation demand to the Debtors [Docket No. 124] (the “Reclamation Demand”) and on November 21, 2018, Coeur filed an objection to the Cash Collateral Motion [Docket No. 146] (the “Cash Collateral Objection”).

WHEREAS, on January 18, 2019, Coeur filed a Statement of Claimed Ownership and Claims of Coeur Mexicana S.A. de C.V., Coeur Rochester, Inc., and Wharf Resources (U.S.A.), Inc. (“Wharf”) [Docket No. 470] (the “Initial Customer Statement”) pursuant to the Uniform Procedures which asserted, among other things, Coeur’s title to and ownership claims to the Disputed Materials and incorporated the Cash Collateral Objection by reference.

WHEREAS, on March 11, 2019, Coeur filed an amendment to the Initial Customer Statement [Docket No. 763] (the “Supplemental Customer Statement” and together with the Initial Customer Statement, the “Customer Statement”).

WHEREAS, on April 1, 2019, Wharf filed a notice withdrawing from participation in the Uniform Procedures pursuant to a certain settlement agreement dated February 15, 2019 among Wharf, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders [Docket No. 866] and amending the Customer Statement to reflect the foregoing [Docket No. 877].

WHEREAS, on April 11, 2019 (i) Mexicana filed proof of claim nos. 318 and 319 against RMC and (ii) Rochester filed proof of claim no. 320 against RMC (collectively, the “Proofs of Claim”).

WHEREAS, on June 21, 2019, the Debtors and the Senior Lenders filed a joint motion for summary judgment [Docket No. 1202] seeking, among other things, to dismiss the Customer Statement as a “Bucket 4” customer ownership claim and overrule the Cash Collateral Objection (the “Summary Judgment Motion”).

WHEREAS, absent approval of this Agreement, the Parties intend to litigate the ownership of the Disputed Materials.

WHEREAS, to avoid the expense and uncertainty of protracted litigation, the Parties desire to settle their disputes according to the terms of this Agreement.

AGREEMENT

NOW, THEREFORE, after good faith, arms’ length extensive negotiations without collusion, and for good and valuable consideration the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree to the following terms:

1. Effective Date. This Agreement is conditioned upon occurrence of the “Effective Date,” which means the first date by which each of the following conditions has occurred:

(a) this Agreement is executed by each of the Parties; and

(b) the Bankruptcy Court enters an order approving this Agreement in a form and substance acceptable to the Parties (the “Settlement Order”), provided that such order has not been stayed and the Agreement has not otherwise been terminated pursuant to Section 9. The Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the Bankruptcy Court enters the Settlement Order on or before September 26, 2019.

The conditions set forth in this Section 1 may be waived, in whole or in part, by mutual agreement of the Parties. As soon as practicable following execution of this Agreement, the Debtors shall file a motion with the Bankruptcy Court, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the Parties, requesting approval of this Agreement pursuant to Rule 9019 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “9019 Motion”). The Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the 9019 Motion is scheduled to be heard by the Bankruptcy Court no later than the currently scheduled omnibus hearing on September 26, 2019.

2. Settlement Payment. As consideration for the resolution of any and all existing disputes among the Parties, the Debtors shall pay to Coeur $2,600,000 in immediately available funds within two (2) business days of the Effective Date, to be divided in the following manner: (i) $1,934,481.69 to Mexicana, and (ii) $665,518.31 to Rochester.

3. Allowed Claims. Upon the Effective Date:

(a) Coeur shall be granted an allowed administrative expense claim against RMC under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code in the amount of $7,000,000 (the “Allowed 503(b)(9) Claim”);

(b) Coeur shall be granted an allowed general unsecured claim against RMC in the amount of $3,431,659 (the “Allowed GUC Claim” and, together with the Allowed 503(b)(9) Claim, the “Allowed Claims”); and

(c) The Debtors shall instruct their claims agent, Donlin Recano & Company, Inc., to enter the Allowed Claims in the claims register and to expunge all other Coeur claims from the claims register (including the Proofs of Claim and any other claims scheduled by the Debtors).

4. Ownership Dispute.

(a) Upon the Effective Date, the Reclamation Demand and the Customer Statement shall be deemed immediately withdrawn with prejudice.

(b) Upon the execution of this Agreement, all deadlines under the Uniform Procedures (including any amendments thereto) solely with respect to Coeur shall be deemed stayed pending the occurrence of the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, in the event that the Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 9 hereof, Coeur shall have the right to continue further discovery in the Ownership Dispute, including but not limited to taking the depositions of any of the Debtors’ or Senior Lenders’ fact witnesses, 30(b)(6) witnesses, and/or expert witnesses (even if those witnesses were previously deposed by other customers), and the Parties shall file their respective opposition and reply papers in connection with the Summary Judgment Motion (with respect to Coeur) on a schedule to be determined by the Parties or the Bankruptcy Court.

5. Plan. Upon the Effective Date, Coeur shall vote (if solicited) in favor of and not, directly or indirectly, object to any plan of liquidation supported by the Senior Lenders and the Debtors so long as the plan provides treatment for administrative expense claims under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code that is no less favorable than that set forth in the plan filed at Docket No. 1295 (as amended or modified, the “Plan”). The Debtors shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that Coeur is added to the list of “Releasees” as defined in the Plan, and is otherwise entitled to the same third party release available to the other Parties under the Plan.

6. Consent to Cash Collateral Order. Upon the Effective Date, the Cash Collateral Objection shall be deemed immediately withdrawn with prejudice and Coeur shall not, directly or indirectly, object to any final cash collateral order supported by the Senior Lenders.

7. Party Representations. Each Party hereby represents and warrants that: (a) such Party and the signatory hereto has the power and authority to execute, deliver and perform this Agreement; (b) such Party has taken all necessary actions to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement; (c) this Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by such Party and constitutes the legal, valid, and binding obligations of such Party, enforceable against it in accordance with their respective terms; (d) such Party’s execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement does not and will not conflict with, or constitute a violation or breach of, or constitute a default under any obligation of such Party and will not violate any applicable law, or any order or decree of any court or government instrumentality applicable to such Party; and

(e) such Party has entered into this Agreement in reliance on its own independent investigation and analysis of the facts underlying the subject matter of this Agreement, and no representations, warranties, or promises of any kind have been made directly or indirectly to induce it to execute this Agreement other than those that are expressly set forth in this Agreement.

8. Mutual Releases.

(a) Upon the Effective Date, each Debtor, each Debtor's estate and each Senior Lender, each on behalf of itself, its respective predecessors, successors and assigns and each of their respective affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors or counsel (each in their capacity as such) (collectively, the "Debtor/Lender Entities"), hereby irrevocably waives, releases and discharges all claims, obligations, suits, judgments, remedies, damages, demands, debts, rights, causes of action, and liabilities that the Debtor/Lender Entities have, may have or are entitled to assert, whether known or unknown, liquidated or unliquidated, fixed or contingent, foreseen or unforeseen, matured or unmatured, in law, equity, or otherwise, including, without limitation, all claims under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code and state fraudulent conveyances, fraudulent transfer and other similar state laws (each, a "Claim"), against (i) Coeur, its predecessors, successors, assigns and each of their affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors and counsel (each in their capacity as such), and (ii) trade counterparties and contract counterparties (each solely in their capacity as such) of the foregoing, solely with respect to transfers of cash, precious metals or metals credits received by such parties at the direction of Coeur, together with each of their affiliates, subsidiaries, employees, directors, officers, members, agents, advisors and counsel (each in their capacity as such) (collectively, the entities set forth in (i) and (ii) above, the "Coeur Entities"), based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or occurrence with respect to the Coeur Contracts, the Disputed Materials and/or any transfers of cash, precious metals or metals credits pursuant to the Coeur Contracts or the business relationship or course of dealings between Coeur and the Debtors; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not release or discharge (i) any obligations arising under and pursuant to this Agreement, or (ii) any claims relating to any breach of the obligations arising under and pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Upon the Effective Date, Coeur, on behalf of itself and each Coeur Entity (including, without limitation, Mexicana and Rochester), hereby irrevocably waives, releases and discharges all Claims against each Debtor/Lender Entity based in whole or in part upon any act or omission, transaction, or occurrence with respect to the Coeur Contracts, the Disputed Materials, the Ownership Dispute, the Secured Credit/Lease Documents, the Prepetition Obligations, the Prepetition Liens and the Cash Collateral Motion; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not release or discharge (i) any obligations arising under and pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) the Allowed Claims or (iii) any claims relating to any breach of the obligations arising under and pursuant to this Agreement.

9. Termination. This Agreement shall be terminated and void ab initio, and none of the Parties shall have any continuing obligations to the other Parties under the terms of this Agreement (except as provided in Section 4(b)): (a) upon the written agreement of each of the Parties hereto, or (b) on November 1, 2019, in the event that (i) the Settlement Order has not then been entered by the Bankruptcy Court, or (ii) the Settlement Order has been entered by the Bankruptcy Court, but the effectiveness of the Settlement Order has been stayed. In the event that the Settlement Order has been entered by the Bankruptcy Court, a timely appeal of the Settlement

Order has been filed, but a stay of the Settlement Order has not been entered, any Party may terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other Parties.

10. Continuing Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction. Each Party agrees that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes regarding the validity, interpretation, or performance of this Agreement so long as the Bankruptcy Cases are pending, and each of the Parties consents to personal jurisdiction and venue in the Bankruptcy Court in connection with any such disputes; provided, however, that if the Bankruptcy Cases are no longer pending, or if the Bankruptcy Court cannot or does not exercise jurisdiction, such jurisdiction and venue shall belong to the federal courts in the Southern District of New York.

11. Voluntary Agreement. Each Party acknowledges that it has read all of the terms of this Agreement, has had an opportunity to consult with counsel of its own choosing, or has voluntarily waived such right and enters into this Agreement voluntarily and without duress.

12. Further Assurances. Each Party agrees, without further consideration, to execute and deliver such other documents and to take such other action as may be necessary to consummate the purposes of this Agreement.

13. No Admission. This Agreement is for settlement purposes only and shall not be construed or deemed an admission by any Party to this Agreement of wrongdoing, liability, fault, or the validity of any claims. This Agreement shall not be introduced by any Party, and shall not be admissible for any purpose, in any action other than an action to enforce its terms.

14. Valid Provisions Remain Effective. If any provision in this Agreement shall be invalid, inoperative or unenforceable, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall remain in effect if both the economic and legal substance of the terms contemplated hereby are not materially affected in any manner adverse to any Party. Otherwise, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to rewrite any such provision so as to, as nearly and fairly as possible, approach the economic and legal substance originally intended.

15. Construction. The language used in this Agreement will be deemed to be the language chosen by the Parties to express their mutual intent, and no rule of strict construction will be applied against any Party, nor will any rule of construction that favors a non-draftsman be applied. A reference to any statute will be deemed also to refer to all rules and regulations promulgated under the statute, unless the context requires otherwise. Unless specifically otherwise provided or the context otherwise requires, the singular includes the plural and the plural the singular; the word “or” is deemed to include “and/or”, the words “including”, “includes” and “include” are deemed to be followed by the words “without limitation”, and references to sections are to those of this Agreement. Headings in this Agreement are included for convenience of reference only and do not constitute a part of this Agreement for any other purpose.

16. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts which, taken together, shall constitute one original. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement by .pdf format shall be effective as delivery of a manually executed counterpart thereof. The Parties authorize their counsel to sign this Agreement on their behalf.

17. Applicable Law. The validity, interpretation, and performance of this Agreement shall be construed and interpreted according to the laws of the State of New York, except to the extent that (a) provisions of the Bankruptcy Code apply, in which event the Bankruptcy Code shall control, or (b) applicable federal law preempts state law.

18. Entire Agreement; Amendments. This document contains the entire Agreement among the Parties as to the matters addressed herein, and may only be modified in writing signed by the Parties or their duly appointed agents. All prior agreements and understandings among the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof are superseded by the terms of this Agreement.

19. Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the Parties and their respective agents, employees, affiliates, successors, and assigns (including any chapter 11 or chapter 7 trustee hereafter appointed or elected for the estates of any of the Debtors, an examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other fiduciary appointed as a legal representative of any Debtor or with respect to the property of the estate of any Debtor). In addition, this Agreement, including the releases provided in Section 8 above, shall be binding on any and all representatives of the Debtors' bankruptcy estates, including any chapter 11 or chapter 7 trustee or any party that has or is granted standing to pursue claims or causes of action on behalf of the Debtors' estates.

20. Continuing Validity. Provided the Effective Date occurs, all provisions of this Agreement that can be given effect without confirmation of a Chapter 11 plan for the Debtors, including, without limitation, payment of the Settlement Payment, the granting of the Allowed Claims and the mutual releases, shall be and remain effective. If any provision of a Chapter 11 plan conflicts with this Agreement, this Agreement shall govern.

21. Third Party Beneficiaries. Other than the Debtor/Lender Entities and the Coeur Entities not otherwise party hereto, there are no third party beneficiaries of this Agreement.

22. Notices. All notices, consents, waivers, and other communications under this Agreement must be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when: (a) delivered by hand (with written confirmation of receipt) or (b) received by the addressee, if sent by email, in each case to the appropriate addresses and representative (if applicable) set forth in the signature page(s) attached hereto (or to such other addresses and representative as a Party may designate by notice to the other Parties in accordance with this paragraph).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties have executed this Agreement as of the date written in the opening paragraph hereof.
